

Right to Information (RTI)

Right to Information Act empowers every citizen to seek any information, take notes, extracts or certified copies of documents or records, take certified samples of material. RTI stands for Right To Information and has been given the status of a fundamental right under Article 19(1) of the Constitution. Article 19 (1) under which every citizen has freedom of speech and expression and have the right to know how the government works, what role does it play, what are its functions and so on.

As an information centre, a facility centre has been established. Any person can write an application under the Right to Information Act from any place in Dhanbad, which is sent to the Public Information Officer of the concerned office by postal / e-mail. Now expanding this system, the common man is being provided the facility of lodging of RTI application online.

For more information, click the link: <https://rtionline.gov.in/>